Attendance Policy: Regular attendance is very important in this course. A student will be dropped from class when the student has missed the required materials from more than 2 chapters or the instructor feels that the objectives of the class cannot be met.

Assignment Policy: Assigned chapters are to be read prior to attempting assignments. Late assignments will be accepted at the discretion of the instructor. If a student misses an exam, it is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor as soon as possible. It will be at the discretion of the instructor whether or not to allow a makeup exam.

Labs: Students may do assignments at the SPC computer lab or at home/work if you have the exact software programs and exact version of the software as used at SPC.

Open computer lab: The Open Computer Lab is located in Technology Center and is available to all students, with priority given to those students enrolled in computer classes.

The hours of operation are:

Monday-Thursday 8:00 a.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Friday 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Lab assistants are available to help you.

Cheating and Plagiarism:

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to: (1) obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion, (2) discovering the content of an examination before it is given, (3) using an unauthorized source of information during an examination, (4) entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage, (5) taking an examination for another, or (6) altering grade records.

Plagiarism is the using, stating, offering, or reporting as one's own an idea, expression, or production another person without proper credit as to its origin. Except in extreme cases, disciplinary action in these cases will be handled by and at the discretion of the instructor and if necessary in consultation with the departmental chairperson. (Student Guide page 11)

Academic Integrity:

It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present their own work, which he or she has not honestly performed, is regarded as a serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension. Students should refer to the South Plains College General catalog policy regarding consequences for cheating and plagiarism (see "Academic Integrity" as well as "Student Conduct" sections in the college catalog page 23).

Electronic Assignments:

This class will involve the use of the Internet and some access to discussion groups, forums, bulletin boards, e-mail programs and/or chat rooms in order to complete the objectives for this class. Topics assigned by the instructor will be relevant to the objectives of this course.

Disclaimer:

"This is to notify you that the materials you may be accessing in chat rooms, bulletin boards or unofficial web pages are not officially sponsored by South Plains College. Diversity Statement:

This class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world, and about ourselves. By Promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should be and can be.

Equal Opportunity Policy:

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement:

If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact Chris Straface, Director of Health and Wellness at 806-716-2362 or email cstraface@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.
